PROFILE

Product & Brand Designer with 10+ years across brand, web and digital product. Founder of Nikato Estudio, where I lead designers and take projects from identity systems to shipped, working software — designing and building end-to-end. Recently designed and developed Vrüm, a complete CRM for car dealerships: user flows, interface, design system and functional product. I pair strong visual craft with front-end development and AI-assisted workflows to move fast from concept to launch.
